GRAND OLD GEORGIA!

WONDERFUL POPULIST GAINS!

Democrat Majorities in Negro Counties

TOM WATSON'S DISTRICT CARRIED BY POPULISTS.

Fulton County Cuts Down A 4,000 Democratic Majority To 500. A Splendid Record For A Dying (?) Party!

GEORGIA ELECTIONS.

Atlanta, Ga. October 3.—W. Y. Atkinson, democrat, was elected governor of Georgia today but by a majority largely reduced from that given to Gov. Northern two years ago. The best returns at hand indicate a full vote, but a falling off of certainly 50 per cent of the democratic majority. Govern or Northen received in 1890, 140,402 votes, against 68,990 for Peek, populist. If Atkinson has 30,000 to-day it is more than his most sanguine friends hope for, while it is more likely to fall to 20,000.

In the campaign which led up to the democratic nomination the young democracy ran the Confederate veterans out of the party by the personal war which they conducted against the latter's favorite, Gen. Clement A. Evans. He was lampooned by the Atkinson men, who said it was time for crutches to be relegated to the rear. The nomination of Atkinson was so distasteful to the veterans that fully 15,000 of them bolted the democratic ticket to-day and voted for James K. Hines, the populist nominee. Besides this, the speeches of Secretary Hoke Smith in advocacy of Mr. Cleveland's financial policy had the effect of driving off many free silver men.

An instance of Confederate discontent was exhibited to day in one of the city wards of Atlanta, when Rev. Dr. T. P Cleveland, the well known Presbyterian divine Chaplain of the Fulton County Veterans' Association, approached the polls. He picked up a democratic ticket, and folding Mr. Atkinson's name was about to tear it off. Maj. Bob Guinn approached and began to argue with him to vote the straight ticket. Dr. Cleveland was struck with this argument and finally said:

The water was brought, and as the doctor shoved his ballot in he shut his eyes and took a big swallow of water.

"There, now," he exclaimed, "I've swallowed Atkinson bodily, but I had to wash him down with a glass of water."

One of the surprises of the campaign was the heavy populist vote given in Fulton county, in which Atlanta is situated. The normal democratic majority is 4000. It looks at midnight as if Atkinson would do well if he gets 500 majority. To show the drift of counties, Dougherty, which gave Northern 900 majority, gives Atkinson 400; Floyd reduces her democratic majority from 1000 300; Pike turns over and gives a populist majority; Coonee increases her populist majority 250; Grantville, in Atkinson's home county gives Hines 91 against 105 for Atkinson. The populist campaign in Georgia was not run upon the wild western plan, but upon thoroughly conservative lines. The negro counties of south Georgia vote democratic, giving the biggest majorities.

Col. Hines to-night views the returns as being so close that he declines to give up the race. The discomfiture of the democratic majority, however may truthfully be laid to the disaffection of the Confederate veterans. Mr. Atkinson led the movement in the Legislature which rejected the acceptance of the Confederate Veteran's Home, for which the late Henry W. Grady had collected the sum of $50,000. The building is now going to ruin, while ex Attorney General Ely, a Confederate veteran, is an inmate of the county poor house, within sight of the building which the people had erected for such unfortunate men as he.

Words From Bailey.

"I have very frankly said that if the people of the fifth district desire their member to spend his time in answering letters and going to the departments, I hope they will send some other citizen to represent them in congress, for I have no ambition to serve them in that capacity."—J. W. Bailey in a letter to the Dallas News, Nov. 28, '93.

"Half of the men here talk one way at home and another way here. * * * * As sure as we live we must go back to old democratic principles, or else we will go forward to absolute ruin. * * * If the people could see how their representatives conduct their business in congress, there would be infinitely more complaint than there is."—J. W. Bailey in a letter to a Farmersville friend.

"There is no place in the democratic party for a man advocating the single standard. The great issue will be the money question and a man must make up his mind whether he will be on the side of the people or of the gold bugs."—J. W. Bailey interview Dallas News, Aug. 3, '93.

To turn his back on the platform now and go over to the single standard side would be little short of rank treachery on the part of the president.—J. W. Bailey interview Dallas News, Aug. 3, '93.

"Mr. Bailey then went on to say that the finance question will probably result in an entirely new allignment of parties."—J. W. Bailey interview in Dallas News, Aug. 3, '93.

In an interview dated at Washington, Feb. 26, '94, J. W. Bailey said:

"I am not surprised at the action of Mr. Bissell. The feeling against me in administration circles on account of the speeches delelivered in Texas in November has been intensified by my recent course in reference to the sale of bonds. Besides all this the so-called Cleveland democrats in Texas have appealed to the postmaster general to disregard what I might have to say in the distribution of federal patronage."

In an interview dated at Washington, Oct. 29, 1893, Mr. Bailey said:

"It could hardly be considered strange however, that Senator Mills should be able to control Texas appointments. He has evinced his willingness to support the president, right or wrong, without regard to his own sentiment."

From a published report in the Dallas News, dated Nov. 21, 1893, of a speech delivered in Sherman by Mr. Bailey, is quoted:

"He arraigned the administration and said that when it came to making a choice between a democratic president and the democratic party he was with the party. He said that Cleveland had done many things which he never could indorse, naming among them, that he had sent a negro as minister to the friendly power of Bolivia."

Mr. Bailey while accusing Mr. Browder of prevaricating should not forget some of his own "changing of mind" one of which was his action in regard to the McKinney post office. It is a well known fact that Mr. Bailey wrote to W. M. Bagley of McKinney in which he said that he favored Mrs. M. A. Cameron for the position of post mistress of that city and so stated to other prominent democrats. He afterwards supported a newspaper man of McKinney. Mrs Cameron does not own or control a newspaper.

BROWDER vs BAILEY.

A Record Of Both.

Who Is The Best Man?

Lay Aside Your Prejudice and Decide.

The Bonham Review publishes a defense of Dr. Browder's pension record and an expose of J. W. Bailey's business record and also some of his acts as affects the public. After a detailed account of Dr. Browder's honorable war record which contains an account of his being captured and held in Libby prison for one hundred days. It publishes the following:

MEDICAL EXAMINER'S CERTIFICATE.

Kirksville, Mo., Sept. 21, 1893.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that we the undersigned, examined U. M. Browder, as members of United States board of examining surgeons for pensions, at Kirksville, Mo., on the ninth day of December, 1891, in accordance with an order from the pension bureau, and recommended that his claim for pension be allowed in accordance with the disabilities then found to exist.

Signed,
JOHN BURTON, M. D. (Rep.)
J. W. MARTIN, M. D. (Dem.)

The above is an exact copy.

The Review continues:

"The fight Bailey tries to make on Dr. Browder's pension is that while his pension is allowed on the grounds of a disease of the stomach, Dr. Frierson, who filled out an application for insurance in the A. O. U. W. put the ground of his pension in that blank to be "tender feet."

"It appears that Dr. Frierson of Gainesville has made himself a tool, both for insurance societies and the pension department as the following statement from one of the best men in north Texas. It also shows the attitude Dr. Frierson occupies as J. W. Bailey's Friday man in the whole matter."

Gainesville, Tex., September 18, 1894. I was examined for admission into the mystic circle by Dr. Frierson who pronounced my condition "a number one." The Dr. asked me why I did not apply for a pension. After my answer he said he got pensions for people and would like to work one up for me.

W. H. Freeman.

"The above letter reveals Dr. Frierson's real attitude in the matter as that of a common quack. If there was any chance to make a dollar out of "Uncle Sam" he was ready to "work up a pension" for a man whose physical condition is "a number one!" But Baily must devise a net in which to tangle Dr. Browder in. So he takes the two insurance and pension application, made out by different physicians. No better net of deceitfulness could have been obtained. The insurance application made out by Dr. Fields answers questions collectively and names merely the constitutional disease, striking out the train of minor manifestations. Dr. Frierson makes out an application and answers questions of minor importance only.

"The following letter from Dr. Geo. S. Field's, sent to Dr. Browder, without solicitation from any one, explains the whole matter:

Gainesville, Tex., Sept. 19, 1894.—Dr. Browder, dear sir: I understand that Mr. Bailey has in his possession a copy of an application by you for insurance in the Mystic Circle with my signature as medical examiner. Have him (Bailey) to read it, it is a true statement as I understand your conditions, etc. There is a list of questions under one head, including many diseases, which, after examining a man, I answer no, often without naming or calling out to the applicant. Any discrepency in this and other applications will be easily explained in this way. * * * In this case, of course, I am the responsible party, not the applicant.

Respectfully,
Geo. S. Field, M. D.

The Review then publishes an array of democratic testimony regarding Mr. Bailey's "failure as a lawyer and manager of his own business" as heretofore puplished in THE DEMOCRAT. It gives a synopsis of unpaid judgments against J. W. Bailey, a record of which is on the Gainesville court docket. The dates of said judgments and the pages are given. The judgments are in favor of the following parties:

C. C. Sanburn, ($1182.35), A. A. Green. (3710.00), Red River National Bank, (2077,83), Red River National Bank vs S. B. Hopkins principal and J. W. Bailey indorsee, (4382.40).

In addition to the above the Review publishes the following:

State of Texas, County of Cook. } Before me, the undersigned authority, this day personally appeared F. Rubush, and states that he is a resident of the city of Gainesville, and that he is a carpenter, and that J. W. Bailey is indebted to him in the aggregate amount of $36,50 for labor performed by him, the said F. Rubush for the said J. W. Bailey, and that the said J. W. Bailey has never paid him one cent for said labor and that he, the said Rubush, has resided in the above said city for the space of 11 years and is well known in city and that the said J. W. Bailey has refused and still refuses to pay him the said amount or any part thereof, though often requested so to do. F. RUBUSH.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me, W. R. Wheeler, a notary public, in and for the county of Cooke, state of Texas, this, the 17th day September 1894.

"It will be remembered that Mr. Bailey, at Honey Grove, denounced the above as a lie, and said he wouldgive ten times the amount if old man Rubush would swear to it. Bailey knows he dare not try to impeach Mr. Rubush.

But here comes another."

State of Texas, County of Cooke. } Before me, the undersigned authority this day personally appeared G. B. F. Maxwell, and states under oath that he is a resident of the city of Gainesville, Tex. and has been for eight years. The said G. B. F. Maxwell states under oath that Benj. Edwards of the Red River National bank told the said Maxwell that J. W. Bailey borrowed money of him to go to Washington on and promised to pay it back out of his first draw but up to a few days before the said Bailey's return home this last time he had not paid it.

G. B. F. Maxwell.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, W. R. Wheeler, a notary public, in and for the county of Cooke and state of Texas, this, the 17th day of September, 1894.

The Review also adds the following:

A STATEMENT.

To the Editor of The Review:

Having learned that it is being rumored through the country that, while I was at Pottsboro in Grayson county, some weeks since, assisting the Rev. T. E. Sherewood in a protracted meeting, I took occasion to denounce from the pulpit the third party. I wrote to Pottsboro for a written staement of the facts, and received the following paper, signed by both democrats and populists:

Pottsboro, Tex., Aug. 9.—To all whom it may concern: Having learned that some one has written from this place to some one in Bonham that the Rev. W. M. Leatherwood while here a few weeks since took occasion to denounce from the pulpit it—the populist or third party—we take occasion to state that such a statement is a base fabrication and unworthy the consideration of anyone for a moment. (Signed)

T. E. Sherwood,
(Pastor M. E. Church South),
W. L. Ashburn, L. P.,
P. C. Hammock,
R. A. Crowder,
G. W. Green, (Populist),
E. A. Wright,
G. E. Reeves, (Populist).

This statement speaks for itself and states the truth, for the writer uttered not one word on that occasion to the disparagement of any political party, and the starter of the mischievous rumor doubtless knew it. Feeling unwilling for the votaries of the third party (or any other party) to believe I had done this thing, and knowing I had not, I have produced the above statement to set myself right before all men.

W. M. LEATHERWOOD.
Pastor M. E. Church South.
Bonham, Texas, Sept. 28, 1894.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Forty Years the Standard.

Have you heard from Georgia Mr. Bailey?

"THE half has never been told."

Affidavit Bailey is getting "tired."

Have you heard from Georgia Clint?

A cadidate in a glass house should not throw stones.

Mr. Bailey says Browder is going to hell. What logic!

The gentleman from Copiah county gets hot under the collar.

The pension bomb knocked the "tender" brained congressman silly.

MR. BAILEY'S feet are getting tender, at least he is not running so well.

Bailey failed to "skin Browder" with logic, so he tried the knife medium at Denison.

THE democratic party in Texas is an asylum for cowards and chronic office seekers.

MR. BAILEY said at Sherman that he would just as soon canvass with a negro as Dr. Browder.

Mr. Bailey says that his grand father fought for the stars as and stripes. Bailey fights for Bailey.

Bailey has been requested to do some campaigning in Missouri and Indiana. Wonder whose throat needs cutting up there?

Bailey said at McKinney that he had learned to have peace if he had to fight for it. He tried the scheme at Denison.

BROKEN down politicians and scheming office seekers from the old states join the ranks of democracy as soon as they enter Texas, because of democracy's hitherto beastly majority.

The opposition papers have been publishing an unsigned letter reflecting on Dr. Browder's character. What Gall! Gentlemen get on the outside of your glass houses.

"I am the congressman of the fifth district. Who dare oppose me? He who attacks my 'illustrious' record is a liar. Do you hear my racket? Whoop-la!"

Texas lawyers are certainly enjoying a feast this year. The democratic state campaign committee is enlisting them by the scores to make speeches for the democratic nominees.

From the highest pinnacle of power and honor, democracy is poising herself preparitory to plunging in universal disgrace to her awful doom on the jagged rocks of total annihilation in 1896.

Democratic papers do not openly antagonize organized labor, but they never lose an opportunity to speak disparagingly of its leaders, or otherwise, to secretly injure or knife it.

Mr. Bailey said in his latest speech at McKinney that the populists wanted to flood the country with cheap money so as they might settle their debts at ten cents on the hundred dollars. Strange that Mr. Bailey doesn't favor such a scheme.

PLATFORMS without candidates and candidates without platforms is the condition of Texas democracy.

THE Texas State Fair and Dallas Exposition commences Oct. 20 and closes Nov. 4 inclusive. The attractions will undoubtedly eclipse all former efforts. A large attendance is anticipated.

THE "muscular, heavyweight" manipulator of the scissors of the McKinney Gazette is getting "funny" indeed. Clint is noted for "picking up" everything but the truth. He is an assassin of political consistency. Watch him!

IF we had good times it would have been placed to the credit of the democratic party by politicians of that organization. Since we have a great panic on hand, owing to reduction of values, why not charge it up to that party!

Bailey, at Copeville in this county, declared he was going to drive Browder back to the pulpit. After repeated failures in trying to do this, Joseph concluded to sever the obstinate parson's jugular vein.

It is bosh to claim that the democratic party is a free silver party. Its national platform does not declare for free silver; its national leaders are mortal enemies to free silver; the state platform is a straddle on the free silver question, and the various congressional platforms declare for or against free silver, according as their constituents favor or approve free and unlimited coinage. It is brazen deception in any man, or any set of men, to affect otherwise.

Bailey gets $5000 per year salary and $100 per month for clerk hire. It takes 224 bales of cotton to pay Bailey's salary for one year, and yet Mr. Bailey said in a speech at Copeville that he could not save anything out of his salary. He said that if any one would pay his expenses he would give him his salary. Of course no one was fool enough to take him up. Why do farmers grumble in their prosperity?

Democrats are howling because a populist candidate for county judge of McLennon county has been indicted for being in a cotton seed trust. They fail to state 16 democrats have been indicted on the same charge, thus making the ratio of "16 to 1". The populist candidate referred to however has been called down by the populist executive committee. We have heard of no democratic candidate being called down.

JUDGE T. L. NUGENT.

Will speak in McKinney at 2 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 17. Let everybody advertise this appointment. Make that day a holiday and turn out to hear this able jurist, statesman and patriot.

CONGRESSMAN BAILEY'S disgraceful actions in this city last Saturday night will cost him numerous votes in this city. We have heard many as good democrats as there are in Grayson county, declare with emphasis that they will not vote for him. These men will not vote for Browder, but will scratch Bailey's name off the ticket.—Denison Gazetteer.

Nugent Oct. 17.

Had J. W. Bailey been on the floor of the house of congress in public debate when he flourished a knife and threatened to cut his opponent's throat, he would have been immediately arrested, tried, and very probably expelled from that body to say the least of. Does not an audience composed of intelligent, respectable ladies and gentlemen, demand the same deference from Mr. Bailey as regards common decency, honor and respect, that the congress of the United States does?

Campaign Funds.

The populist campaign committee of Collin county is in need of funds, only a small amount, to pay for the legitimate expenses connected with the canvass. Let every one who is interested in the cause come forward at once with their mite. There are good and true men who have spent their money and time in the work without reward. Can you afford to let them continue alone? Help them to fight the battle.

The populist executive committees of Collin and Hunt counties are requested to meet in McKinney Wednesday Oct. 17, 1894 at 10 A. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for floater from the 5th. senatorial district.

Dr. Browder has not decided on the dates he will speak at Anna and Bonham, but informs us that he will be sure to visit those two points in this county before the election.

From High Government Authority.

No authority of greater experience on food products exists than Dr. Henry A. Mott, of New York. Dr. Mott's wide experience as Government Chemist for the Indian Department, gave him exceptional opportunities to acquaint himself with the qualities and constituent parts of baking powders. He understands thoroughly the comparative value of every brand in the market, and has from time to time expressed his opinion thereof. On a recent careful re-examination and analysis he finds superior to all others in strength, purity, and efficiency. Dr. Mott writes:—

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

"New York, March 20th, 1894.

I find Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to be superior to all others, for the following reasons:—

1st. It liberates the greatest amount of leavening gas and is consequently more efficient.

2nd. The ingredients used in its preparation are of the purest character.

3rd. Its keeping qualities are excellent.

4th. On account of the purity of the materials and their relative proportions, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder must be considered the acme of perfection as regards wholesomeness and efficiency, and I say this having in mind certificates I have given several years ago respecting two other baking powders.

The reasons for the change in my opinion are based on the above facts and the new method adopted to prevent your baking powder from caking and deteriorating in strength.

HENRY A. MOTT, Ph. D., L. L. D."

FROM A DEMOCRATIC PAPER.

Browder-Bailey Episode.

(Denison Gazetteer, Oct. 7 '94.)

At the conclusion of Mr. Bailey's address a large portion of the audience retired.

Stepping up to the desk on the stage Mr. Browder drew from his pocket a large envelope and as he did so Mr. Bailey grew white as a sheet. Mr. Browder said that in his hands were documents to prove that Mr. Bailey did not pay his honest debts.

It may have been unintentional on Mr. Bailey's part but while sitting he toyed with a small pocket knife, and when Mr. Browder made the above statement Bailey sprang from his chair, and flourished the knife, and exclaimed that he would cut Browder's throat if he attempted to read the documents referred to. His manner and jesture was that of livid rage. His voice trembled, his frame quivered, but Browder preserved his composure, counseled Bailey to quiet himself and learn to at least act the part of a gentleman. "This man's charges," said Browder "are as false as hell. They are conceived and brough fourth in iniquity. I have treated him as a gentleman; you see his actions and hear his threats against my life. If he means what he says I will have him put under the law. He knows that I fear him not but men who are so abandoned, men who are so brutal in their nature should not be allowed the privileges of an ordinary gentleman. These papers that I hold in my hands are from the record books of the district corut of Cooke county and if any man doubts their accuracy they need only go to Gainesville, turn to the books and pages, as stated here, and read for themselves."

While Mr. Browder spoke, Mr. Bailey stood on the opposite side of the table and continued to wave his right hand. A wild scene followed. Men from various portions of the house sprang from their seats and rushed up to the space around the stage. City Marshal James was called upon the stage. Men yelled, some for Bailey but the crowd was with Browder.

A heated discussion followed. Bailey stated that he would cut any man's throat that would accuse him of dishonor. Two or three of the men on the stage gathered around Mr. Bailey, and finally persuaded him to take his seat. Mr. Browder soon gained the attention of the audience and finished his remarks. In closing he stated that no man more than himself regretted the unfortunate occurance and as for himself he did not approve of bringing personalities into a political discussion. He would call it even with Mr. Bailey and cease drawing the pension if Mr. Bailey would lop off his $100 per month clerk hire during the session of congress.

Mr. Bailey again attempted to gain the ear of the people, but, the hour was late and neither eloquence nor pleading could stop the confusion nor the stream of humanity down through the front stairway Mr. Bailey allowed his temper to master reason and dethrone judgement and while th crowd howled and yelled he pleaded in vain for their attention.

The theatric season will be opened in McKinney by a great "Tornado" in Heard's Opera house Oct. 19th. inst.

DEMOCRATS are pleased to read to the public the amount of bills offered by populist members of congress, all of which if they had passed would have amounted to a large sum of money. We have in this office a list of bills offerby the members of the opposition numbering 13000 amounting to $100,000,000,000 dollars! Gentlemen how is this!

A Wedding.

Last night at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Elzey, on West Houston street, Mr. C. W. Goodin, of McKinney, was united in marriage with Miss Clara Mae Elzey, Rev. L. S. Ashburn officiating.

The bride is one of Sherman's most popular young ladies and has a circle of friends, all of whom wish her happiness.

Mr. Goodin is a popular and successful business man of McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodin left last night for McKinney, where they will make their home.—Serman Register, Friday Sept. 28, 1894.

The groom, Mr. C. W. Goodin, better known as "Wes" has grown to manhood here in McKinney and is well and favorably known by every one. We congratulate him on winning so fair and worthy a bride to accompany him along life's pathway, which the DEMOCRAT wishes, may be strewn with garlands of unbroken joy.

W. D. Johnson has put up a laundry in the north part of McKinney and is doing splendid work. He intends soon to have a first class steam laundry in full operation.

Nugent, Oct. 17.

John Doyle, candidate for local representative, will speak at the following times and places:

R. C. Knott has disposed of his blacksmith shop to Gerrish, Forsythe & Co.

Misses Laura Coffey, Mary Magner and Cora McMillan honored THE DEMOCRAT with a pleasant call Thursday.

S. Wiseman, of this city, has opened a branch establishment in Pilot Point. Ike Swartz and Glen Stiff have charge of it,

The men who are running against J. W. George, for justice of the peace of precinct No 1 and J. C. Dunn for constable of precinct No 1 have a tough job on their hands.

Judge Muse was greeted by a very fair sized audience Monday night at the courthouse. A number of populists were present.

The little son of Mr. Herrald, who was accidentally shot in the brain by his brother, died last Saturday.

Mr. George Murphy, of Sherman, was in our city Monday looking after his business interests here.

Mrs. May Bass, of Lebanon, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mollie Rogers, returned home Wednesday.

We notice in the Farmersville Times, that Eld. A. P. Terrell has been preaching some able sermons in that city, recently.

While a party of young ladies were out horse-back riding Saturday evening, Miss Sarah Webb, one of the number, was thrown violently to the ground, but fortunately was not seriously injured.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adopted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothach or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be donewhen Pain Balm is at hand. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle and you will never regret it. For sale by H. C. Herndon.

James A. Barnett, manager of Heard's Opera house, was very fortunate in securing the "Tornado" to open the season.

Kearby At Corsicana.

Corsicana, Navarro, Co. Tex. Sept. 29.—One of the biggest third party pow-wows ever known in the history of this county was held in this city tonight. The afternoon was very bad, rain enough fell to dampen even the enthusiasm of a populist, causing the democrats to rejoice, but the laugh was premature, as the rain ceased and the sky cleared off before sunset and at 7:30 p. m. Judge Jerome C. Kearby of Dallas mounted the stand amid a deafening cheer.

The boys from the forks of the creek were out in full force and they were strong. The crowd was immense and their cheers mingled with the voracious notes of a brass band quickened the political pulse of all present.

Col. Kearby was the orator of the night and delivered a reply to the speech which Mr. Mills made here this afternoon. He took up the silver argument of Mr. Mills and picked it to pieces in true third party style. He made a big hit with the fact that Roger Q. Mills, who has been the champion of tariff reform for at least a decade past, made a speech this afternoon of two and one-half hours' duration and never once mentioned the tariff. He also reminded his hearers that Mr. Mills had long been a most bitter enemy oi the republican party, yet in his speech to day he never once referred to his old enemy. These hits seemed to strike the crowd just right and cheer after cheer went up. Then Mr. Kearby took up the various democratic measures introduced or passed in the fifty-second congress and treated them to a true third party drubbing. He turned on the calcium in the usual populistic way and storms of applause continued to gather and burst over the grand stand.

He next took up the various bills introduced into the fifty-second congress by the populist members and showed conclusively, to the populists, that if these bills had been laws the people of Texas would now have plenty of money and that cotton would be selling at 10 cents per pound. He showed how the populist member had tried to pass laws to better the condition of the idle.

Judge Kearby also took Mr. Mills to task for having refused to divide time with him and brought up the old carpet-bagging days when Gov. E. J. Davis made a speech in this city, and after refusing to divide time with any democrat Mr. Mills mounted the stand after the governor had finished and delivered himself of a two hour's speech.

Judge Kearby attacked the present democratic administration in a very bitter way, and speaking from a populist standpoint, tore their platform to pieces. He spoke for about three hours, although at the start he had apologized for his hoarseness and physical weakness.

To say that his speech was received with great enthusiasm from the large crowd of populists present would be a very conservative statement. He took his seat amid a storm of applause and music from the band.

There were other orators who followed Mr. Kearby. The speakers were T. C. Gore, the blind orator from Mississippi; E. O. Call of this city and others. The meeting held on until long after midnight. The populists are rejoicing over the local ticket.

Populists In Georgia.

Galveston, Tex. Oct. 6.—The populists are claiming to have carried Georgia in the recent election. A telegram received here to-day by Mr. J. M. Burroughs, an enthusiastic populist reads as follows:

Atlanta, Ga., Oct 6.—J. M. Burroughs, Galveston: Returns still holding back. Eighty counties give a democratic majority of 7000. The fifty-seven counties yet to hear from with a fair count would give us the state. OSCAR PARKER, Sec'y.

The Cleveland democrats are claiming that Culberson is getting off the Dallas platform. Many of them say that Culberson is losing votes.

Long Savannah, Jones Co., Texas. DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—I think your "Favorite Prescription" was the preservation of my life. I was under the doctor's care for three months with womb disease and a gradual wasting of the system. I was so weak that I could not be raised in bed when I commenced taking the "Prescription," and by the time I had taken three bottles I was up and going wherever I pleased, and have had good health and been very strong ever since. That was four years ago. I have recommended it to a good many of my friends, and they have taken it and are highly pleased. Yours truly, G. A. SPRIGGS.

STIFF'S CHAPEL.

Oct. 1, 1894.

Editor Democrat:

For density of population, good turnouts at public gatherings and big-hearted, whole-souled people, the Chapel cannot be surpassed in Collin county.

I find The Democrat is very popular here, hence our community ought to be represented in its columns.

I hear on every hand—and it seems to be a sentiment that has taken deep hold on every farmer—that, henceforth cotton will receive but little attention from them. Will all the farmers agree to that and stick to it? We shall see.

An ice cream supper, the proceeds of which will be used for the benefit of the schoolhouse, is talked of for the near future.

Mrs. Nancy Stiff, after having suffered intensely for days, gladly yielded her spirit from its abode of clay, to that great God who gave it. She was a true Christian, a good wife and mother. Many relatives and friends followed her remains to the last resting place. Appropriate services were held before interment. How sad the scene! While the many weeping ones were looking on the dead for the last time the wind howled in fitful gusts, the lightning played along the rim of a dark cloud, the deep toned thunder reverberated along the vaulted sky, and all nature seemed to try to convince man of the folly of letting earthly things consume his whole time and neglect to prepare for a repetition of this same sad scene. Our heart-felt sympathies are extended to the bereaved ones.

Since the long and fatal illness in Mr. Camerons family, our Sunday school has lost interest; but he is with us again and has inspired new vigor into the dormant members.

The Chapel has a choir that is hard to beat.

Miss Sallie Stroup of Verona, was with us Sunday and executed the instrumental part of the music; Bro. Warden led the vocal. Both are splendid in their respective qualifications.

E. G. Howard has erected a dwelling near the school house and will teach the ensuing term. We have a good school—about ninety in scholastic age. EXTEMPORE.

Coming! The Big Show of The World to McKinney Oct. 22.

The title of the Sells Brothers enormous enterprise is not an empty name, nor a vain boast. Its claim is just as it is; truly "The Big Show of the World." Not only because of the unparallel features presented, its unequaled performances in its magnificent triple Circuses and elevated stages, its all overshadowing immensity, its grand zoological exhibit including fifty monster cage menagerie of rare wild animals. Its Royal Regal Hippodrome and Gala Day Sport. Its imperial Spectacular Triumph Pilgrimage to Mecca. Its grand gorgeous and bewildering street pageant; but also on account of the new departure it has originated and inaugurated all new features, improving and pefecting its performance, equalizing low prices of everything by cutting its price of admission to fifty cents, which is a fearless stroke of managerial policy, sending terror to weak-headed rivals whose pigmy brains have been racked to meet exigencies of dull times—other shows have cut down—Sells Brothers have enlarged.

While other so-called big circuses hold fast to high prices with reduced attractions, Sells Brothers, the millionaire magnates, have adopted the exact opposite. They do not stint their stupendous performance in the least, as they have successfully managed and owned their Enormous United Shows for the past twenty-three years, and have maintained a pre-eminence over all and is acknowledged to be the only "big show in the world." Since adopting the low price of admission to the mammoth aggregation they have met the approval of the amusement-loving public, as the price has been placed in reach of all—fifty cents—and it is, without a doubt the greatest cyclone that has ever excited the circus world. How so much can be exhibited for the small price of admission is a conumdrum we shall not attempt to answer. If Sells Brothers can stand it the public and ourselves will be glad to do so, and w'll all be there, too.

NEWS NOTES.

Corbett, the pugilist, challenges the fighters of the world to fight him one at a time.

Nugent is speaking to large crowds in Texas cities.

The city of Little Rock, Ark. was a victim of a cyclone recently. One million dollars of property was destroyed and several lives lost.

At Neola, Ia. a large crowd gathered at the depot to see Governor McKinley. He spoke to the crowd a few minutes. As the train passed on the crowd gave a populist cheer for Weaver. Neola is a Weaver stronghold in the 9th, district.

Mrs. J. E. Butler, the wealthy widow of a confederate general, committed suicide recently, in New York, because of the waywardness of her son.

An ancient city, covering many acres, has been discovered at the foot of an extinct volcano, in the Andes mountains.

Senator McPherson, a leading democratic member of the U. S. Senate, declines to be a candidate for re election.

Kansas populists have notified Senator Martin that he must come out for Lewelling or lose their support.

Cotton is said to have reached the lowest point in price than has ever before been registered.

Denison people are not pleased with the fake report of the plot to assassinate Bailey in that city.

Vote for the dauntless Thomas L. Nugent for governor, the only candidate for that position that defies the combined enemies of labor and fearlessly espouses the cause of the horny hand of toil.

Mills, Clark, Matlock and Aldredge are right—the democratic party is not a free silver party. If it were, the 53rd congress with its unprecedented democratic majority of 148 would have remonetized silver by passing a free and unlimited coinage act, and Grover Cleveland, the kingliest of the gold bug kings, would not have been enstalled in the highest position of the nation by this same party.

If all the bills introduced by democrats in the last session of congress had become laws, the people would have been taxed more than $101,500,000,000, an amount greater than two times the total wealth of the United States.
